PRESENTERS:

Sheri L. Rose is the CEO / Executive Director of the Thrive Center, a nonprofit innovation center focused on wellness and aging. She is also a partner at Commonwealth Leverage LLC, a healthcare professional consulting firm. Sheri previously held positions with AT&T, as Director of Sales & Regulatory. She serves on the Executive Board of the Women's Political Council of Louisville and on the board of New Directions Housing Authority. She was named by Louisville Business First as "Top 20 People to Know in Aging" and was recognized by HealthTech Magazine as a woman to know in health IT. Sheri holds a B.A and M.Ed. In Psychology from the University of Louisville.

Danielle Haskin, MSW, is an educational consultant with CEU Creations with over 14 years of experience in educational publishing as a course development specialist, developmental editor, and continuing education director. With formative roots as a social worker in the Michigan foster care system, Danielle found her niche in program evaluation, continuing education, and content development. Danielle has been working with CEU Creations for over three years – developing content, working with the licensure boards, and facilitating virtual events.

Danielle holds a clinically focused Bachelor's Degree in Social Work from Saginaw Valley State University. She obtained a Master's Degree in Social Work from the University of Michigan, concentrating in social policy and program evaluation. Born and raised in Michigan, Danielle recently returned to her home state with her husband, daughters, pups, and rescue cat. Danielle is a published author, guest speaker, activist, amateur gardener, and coffee fanatic.
