AGENDA

11:45 AM - 12:00 PM: Log-In and Virtual Networking

12:00 PM - 1:00 PM: Documentary viewing

Human trafficking is a crime of exploitation, that harms the well-being of individuals and communities everywhere. There are an estimated 24.9 million victims worldwide at any given time. Sex trafficking is a worldwide epidemic, a tragedy that affects women, men and children. In this eye-opening viewing of Surviving Sex Trafficking, participants will learn about the ongoing struggles of survivors as they desperately fight to break free of their past, heal their bodies and minds, reconnect with a world of hope, and reclaim their lost humanity. The documentary follows the personal stories of survivors, allowing participants to see an inside view of the world of trafficking from the perspective of a survivor.

BY ATTENDING OUR WORKSHOP, YOU WILL BE ABLE TO:

- State at least three ethical principles that overlay the need for helping professionals to be aware of the signs of human trafficking, ways to assist victims and survivors and ways to prevent this horrific crime
- Name at least two signs that a person may be a victim of human trafficking and how to intervene
- Identify at least three resources for rescuing victims and helping support survivors of human trafficking

Course Interaction and Technical Requirements: This live webinar is fully interactive. Attendees may ask and answer questions throughout the presentation and participate in instructor-led discussions. A computer or mobile device is required. Zoom account is not required. You will receive an email approximately 24 hours prior to the start of the class with a link to the webinar.

In order to receive credit, you must login on time, attend the entire presentation, and complete an online evaluation within 30 minutes of the conclusion of the event. Attendance log and Zoom analytics will be reviewed by the CE Director. Certificates will be provided in approximately 5 business days.
