PRESENTED BY:

Rhonda DiNovo, LMSW, MSW, ADC-IP, Clinical Assistant Professor,
MSW Program Coordinator, College of Social Work – University of South Carolina

Rhonda DiNovo serves as Clinical Assistant Professor, MSW Program Coordinator, and Coordinator of the Graduate Drug and Addictions Studies Certificate Program in the College of Social Work at the University of South Carolina. She teaches students important theoretical and practical approaches in interdisciplinary health and mental health, as well as principles and practices of motivational interviewing and cognitive behavior therapy. Professor DiNovo also serves as Field Supervisor and Director of the West Columbia Outreach Program, a police social work outreach service offered through the West Columbia Police Department that provides brief screening, assessment and referral to treatment services and community resources to those in mental health and substance use crises. Prior to becoming a full-time faculty member in the College of Social Work, Rhonda served three years as Director of Substance Abuse Prevention and Education for USC and eight years as Prevention Specialist for adolescents and their families at LRADAC.

AGENDA

11:45 AM - 11:55 AM:	Log In and Virtual Networking
11:55 AM - 12:00 PM	Special Announcement
12:00 PM - 1:00 PM:	Presentation

Motivational Interviewing (MI) is a goal-oriented, collaborative process to help facilitate desired changes in thoughts and behaviors. This unique method can be applied across many practice settings and helps the client to look within themselves to spark change. This workshop examines a brief definition and history, theoretical framework, style and spirit, process, and techniques of MI. In addition, it also explores how biases and diversity influences behavior and services, and provides tools for reflection, self-monitoring and regulation to manage personal values and maintain professional standards of practice. Don't miss this engaging training that can provide tools to help sharpen your skills in your day-to-day practices.

BY THE END OF THE SESSION, THE PARTICIPANT WILL BE ABLE TO:

- Describe the practice of reflection, self-monitoring and regulation to ensure ethical practice in Motivational Interviewing
- Examine the basic terminology and framework of Motivational Interviewing
- Identify the meaning of using style and spirit with Motivational Interviewing techniques
