Aging, Memory, and Caring Relationships: Enhancing Engagement for Older Adults

AGENDA

5:45: PM ET – 6:00 PM ET:	Log in and Virtual Networking
6:00 PM ET – 8:00 PM ET:	Presentation
8:00 PM ET:	Evaluations and adjourn

This two-hour continuing education training combines an artistic exploration of aging with a research-informed discussion. The session begins with a short play, The Forager, that artfully depicts themes of memory, caregiving, and connection. Following the performance, Dr. Christine Williams, an esteemed researcher and practitioner, will lead an interactive presentation on the intersections of social engagement, mental health, and aging. Participants will gain insights into innovative approaches to enhance the well-being of older adults, including caregiving strategies and the role of meaningful social and physical engagement.

BY THE END OF THE SESSION, THE PARTICIPANT WILL BE ABLE TO:

1. Describe the significance of social and physical engagement in promoting mental health and reducing cognitive decline among older adults, as supported by current research findings.
2. Identify effective communication strategies for caregivers to support individuals with dementia or cognitive impairment in maintaining dignity and fostering connection.
3. Apply research-based approaches to enhance caregiving practices, integrating lessons from the arts and innovative models for optimizing engagement in older adults.

Course Interaction and Technical Requirements: This live webinar is fully interactive. Attendees may ask and answer questions throughout the presentation and participate in instructor-led discussions. A computer or mobile device is required. Zoom account is not required. You will receive an email approximately 24 hours prior to the start of the class with a link to the webinar.

In order to receive credit, you must log in on time, attend the entire presentation, and complete an online evaluation within 30 minutes of the conclusion of the event. Attendance log and Zoom analytics will be reviewed by the CE Director. Certificates will be provided in approximately 7-10 business days.

Aging, Memory, and Caring Relationships: Enhancing Engagement for Older Adults

PRESENTERS:

Barry Stoltze,
Actor

Barry Stoltze has been a professional actor for nearly 50 years. He has voiced hundreds of commercials, worked on audiobooks, animation, and gaming, and has appeared extensively on stage and screen. In 2022, he was a proud participant in CEU Creations' online production of TURNING INTO THE SKID with Judith Gantly. In 2023, he was part of the ensemble of PRAYER FOR THE FRENCH REPUBLIC at Actor's Express which won the Suzi Award for Best Play, a thought-provoking production that included his current CEU Creations scene partner, Carolyn Cook. In the winter of 2025, he will be portraying an immortal prophet in the new musical KING OF PANGAEA at the Aurora Theatre in Lawrenceville, GA. He has appeared on camera in OZARK, HALT AND CATCH FIRE, and SLEEPY HOLLOW and in the films THE LONGEST RIDE and TYLER PERRY'S BOO! 2, among others. Additionally, at Synchronicity Theatre in 2018, Barry wrote and produced I CAN'T TECHNO: A MUSICAL GUIDE TO MODERN TIMES, with song parodies and comedy sketches about Mankind dealing with technology down through the Ages. And in October at the Shakespeare Tavern, he co-produced the 21st annual LEND ME AN EAR, a night of Old Time Radio recreations by union performers, which this year raised food assistance money for Open Hand.

Carolyn Cook,
Actor/Director

Carolyn Cook is the founder and first artistic director of Theatre du Reve. She has more than twenty-five years of experience as a professional actor, director, producer, teacher, and acting coach. Carolyn has worked as an actor and/or director with some of the top theaters in Atlanta including Georgia Shakespeare, Horizon Theatre, The Alliance Theatre, Actor's Express, Theatre in the Square, Seven Stages, and Theater Emory. She has taught acting and theatre studies at Emory University, Oglethorpe University, Pebblebrook High School, and the Robert Mello Studio. She is a graduate of the 2015 Memory Bridge Training Retreat, a five-day intensive program leading to positive, meaningful dementia relationships. Carolyn co-developed and performed in Blackberry Winter, a play by Steve Yockey about a woman coming to terms with her new role as a caregiver, and wrote and performed the one-woman autobiographical play, Walk With Me, where a woman sets out to meet her loved ones with dementia where they are — and returns with a guidebook for fellow travelers.
