PRESENTED BY:

Lauren R. Chase,
PhD, LCMHC, NCC,
BC-TMH

Dr. Lauren Chase is a clinical mental health counselor, counselor educator, and owner of Climbing Hills Counseling, a practice where she specializes in working with high-achieving women to raise self-esteem and set stronger boundaries to live a more fulfilling life. In her free time, she likes to spend time with her dog, read historical fiction novels, and explore nature.

Her education and professional career have been focused on culturally responsive child-centered play therapy with children and families. She has worked in various settings, including community mental health, high school, university disability services, homeless shelter, and residential facility over the course of four years. She has won awards for her commitment to the field of suicide prevention and for promoting creativity in the counseling profession. Her research interests include social justice advocacy, trauma, cultural humility, and play therapy.

Thank you to our sponsors for their generous support!

Birds Fly, Fish Swim, and Children Play: Intro to Child-Centered Play Therapy

AGENDA

2:45 PM - 3:00 PM ET:	Log In and Virtual Networking
3:00 PM - 4:00 PM ET:	Presentation
4:00 PM ET:	Closing/Evaluation

This webinar introduces the audience to the basic concepts of child-centered play therapy. Participants will learn the needed attitudes and skills to create and sustain facilitative relationships with children that encourage their creativity and encourage change.

BY THE END OF THIS SESSION, THE PARTICIPANT WILL BE ABLE TO:

1. Discover one approach to child-centered play therapy (CCPT).
2. Identify five developmentally appropriate play therapy toys and materials.
3. List three roles of the play therapist
4. Label three elements of the play therapy relationship.

Course Interaction and Technical Requirements: This live webinar is fully interactive. Attendees may ask and answer questions throughout the presentation and participate in instructor-led discussions. A computer or mobile device is required. Zoom account is not required. You will receive an email approximately 24 hours prior to the start of the event with a link to the webinar.

In order to receive credit, you must log in on time, attend the entire presentation, and complete an evaluation within 30 minutes of the conclusion of the event. Attendance log and Zoom analytics will be reviewed by the CE Director. Certificates will be provided in approximately 5 business days.
