Assessing and intervening with suicidal clients is one of the most critical responsibilities for clinicians. This training provides an in-depth exploration of comprehensive suicide assessment tools and approaches, emphasizing best practices for conducting thorough evaluations. Participants will delve into evidenced-based intervention methods to address suicidality and reduce risk, while also examining the legal and ethical requirements for effective practice. Additionally, the training includes case studies and interactive exercises to reinforce learned skills. Leave this workshop equipped with enhanced confidence, advanced tools, and a deeper understanding to support clients experiencing suicidality.

BY THE END OF THE SESSION, THE PARTICIPANT WILL BE ABLE TO:

1. Identify thorough suicide assessment procedures and practices.
2. Formulate a risk level and employ strategies to reduce suicidality.
3. Explain therapeutic approaches for supporting suicidal clients.
4. Apply evidenced-based approaches to intervene with suicide.
5. Identify legal and ethical requirements for effective practice.
6. Analyze case studies to apply suicide assessment and intervention techniques in diverse clinical scenarios
