Spirituality can be an integral component of people's lives and a useful tool in therapy. This training will provide a rationale for integrating a spiritual approach into therapy, along with the ethical role of the therapist in working with diverse populations. Practical strategies for incorporating spiritual assessments and interventions into the therapeutic setting will be presented. A grand case study video will demonstrate therapeutic skills and provide an example of how individuals can be supported in exploring their religion and spirituality.

BY ATTENDING OUR WORKSHOP, YOU WILL BE ABLE TO:

- Describe and implement an ethical practice of spirituality in therapy
- Identify at least three clinical benefits of incorporating spirituality into treatment
- Integrate spiritual practices to meet the diverse backgrounds and needs of clients
- Develop client strengths, capacities, and opportunities using spirituality tools
- Explore assessment and intervention tools for enhancing client spirituality

Course Interaction and Technical Requirements: This live webinar is fully interactive. Attendees may ask and answer questions throughout the presentation and participate in instructor-led discussions. A computer or mobile device is required. Zoom account is not required. You will receive an email approximately 24 hours prior to the start of the class with a link to the webinar.

To receive credit, you must log in on time, attend the entire presentation, and complete an online evaluation within 30 minutes of the conclusion of the event. Attendance log and Zoom analytics will be reviewed by the CE Director. Certificates will be provided in approximately 5 business days.
