PRESENTED BY:

Nancy Henkin, PhD, Senior Fellow at Generations United and Owner of Nancy Z. Henkin Consulting

Dr. Henkin, the founder and former executive director of the Intergenerational Center at Temple University, is currently serving as a senior fellow at Generations United. Over the past 45 years, she has developed a wide range of cross-age programs, provided consultation to local, national, and international organizations, and published numerous articles and program materials.

Dr. Henkin is a leading authority in intergenerational practice, community building, and lifelong civic engagement/learning. She serves on the International Journal of Intergenerational Relations editorial board and is the recipient of numerous awards, including the Maggie Kuhn Award (Gray Panthers), the Jack Ossofsky Award (National Council on the Aging), the Eisner Prize for Intergenerational Excellence (on behalf of the Intergenerational Center), the Cantor Leadership Award (Elders Share the Arts), and the Intergenerational Champion Award (Generations United). In 2006, she was elected into the Ashoka Fellowship, a global community of social entrepreneurs.

Thank you to our sponsors for your generous support!

Bridging Generations to Combat Isolation: Intergenerational Connections for Improved Well-Being

AGENDA (all times are Eastern)

2:45 p.m. – 3:00 p.m. Log in and Virtual Networking

3:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m. Presentation

This training introduces helping professionals to the potential of intergenerational connections as a tool to address isolation and loneliness, and strengthen communities. Participants will learn how fostering relationships across generations can positively impact mental health and emotional well-being. This session will equip attendees with strategies to identify or create opportunities for intergenerational engagement and to support clients in building meaningful and supportive relationships.

By the end of the session, the participant will be able to:

1. Describe the impact of isolation and loneliness across the lifespan and explain how intergenerational connections can mitigate these challenges.
2. Identify opportunities within their professional roles to foster intergenerational relationships and support clients in building meaningful connections.
3. Apply practical strategies to help clients experiencing isolation or loneliness engage with intergenerational resources and relationships in their communities.

Course Interaction and Technical Requirements: This live webinar is fully interactive. Attendees may ask and answer questions throughout the presentation and participate in instructor-led discussions. A computer or mobile device is required. Zoom account is not required. You will receive an email approximately 24 hours prior to the start of the class with a link to the webinar.

To receive credit, you must log in on time, attend the entire presentation, and complete an online evaluation within 30 minutes of the conclusion of the event. Attendance log and Zoom analytics will be reviewed by the CE Director. Certificates will be provided in approximately 5 business days.
